

Customer Declaration Form - MCB Salary Current Account

1. MCB Salary Current Account is a non-profit bearing rupee Current Account.
2. There is no minimum balance requirement.
3. Free services offered with MCB Salary Account are governed through the SoBC that is updated & published on periodic basis. Any future change in charges related to the product services will accordingly be updated and made public in the SoBC as per standard practice.
4. To avail bundled free services (mentioned in SoBC), a fixed monthly service fee of PKR 1+ FED will be levied on all eligible MCB Business Accounts
5. The free services offered in this product are subject to change. 30 days prior notice will be served to the customers before commencing any change in Terms & Conditions in future.
6. Un-availed free services cannot be carried forward. If a customer does not use his assigned free service during a said month, his quota for that particular month will expire.
7. Free services cannot be used in advance; a customer cannot use free services he / she may earn in the future during the current calendar month.
8. These terms and conditions shall supplement any and all other terms & conditions agreed by the customer at the time of account opening.
9. The customer will be eligible to get these free services till he is the employee of the organization that has entered into payroll agreement with MCB. In case he leaves the company or the payroll arrangement with the organization expires, these services will no longer be available to the customer.
10. By using / continuing with the usage of the services mentioned herein, the customer will be construed to have agreed to the terms and conditions mentioned herein automatically. For more information and assistance, please contact your nearest branch or call 111-000-622.

Customer Declaration:

I have fully read and clearly understood the terms & conditions mentioned above.

Signature: _____

Name: _____

CNIC No: _____

Date: _____